Have you been looking for a charming Kirkwood home located within walking distance to Downtown Kirkwood? Look no further... this home is located .3 miles from the Farmer's Market, wonderful restaurants and shops.

Step inside and notice the inviting gas fireplace, hardwood floors and numerous windows that provide natural lighting throughout. Next, you enter the formal dining room. Off of the dining room is a stunning addition to the home that includes a great room and screened-in porch.

The great room features numerous antique architectural details. Notice the following: art glass window from Log Cabin Country Club in Ladue, 2 decorative hand-carved brackets from German Turnverein Gym, wood trim around the doors and windows are from various homes in Lafayette Square and Soulard. The inlay wood ceiling and beams were created by a master craftsman. From the great room you can step out to the screened-in porch overlooking the lush landscaped backyard. The skylight in the screened-in
